IN SEARCH OF A PROFIT FROM EMIL

At first glance, one might want to agree with Emil's most cruel assertion(s) that WWWG is truly an evil corporation who makes Emil poor and destitute in order to keep him on the Corporate Plantation; well… we are NOT and if the truth be really known as to how Emil has exploited, abused and taken whole advantage of our kindness without a single regards to what his bonehead action(s) have created for us in our efforts to support him with a total disregards to the monies that his books actually generate.

Thus…our marketing team created this (in dispute with Emil's boycott) to generate a greater awareness of Emil's 128 current book catalog.

Happy Birthday...American...

Where ever you might NOW be..
I do hold your truths dearly and will (today) light a candle, say a prayer that you might turn back the fowl tide of WOKE Anarchy and beat back the advance of Cancel Terror...
To all those silenced by fear of unemployment, declining property values. life or liberty and the decline of your social credit score...I call on each of you to be like Nancy Reagan - who once told us "Just sayz NO!"
"No" is the single most important word of all humankind and when even just one person braves the slings of Cancel Culture...it can change the world...it is like when Chairman Mao (former CEO of China Inc.) once told us deep into the long march..."Revolution starts with one person standing up and saying NO!"

Emil has devoted much time and enormous effects to reflect on these times and to ask you to see through all the post-event, all of later generation's second thoughts and even the outright lies that your great grand fathers allowed to written in the history books for the modern day WOKE students.

What is lost in translation is the truth that this was a war without meaning other than it was the first great, abased morphing/clashing between modern technology with the standard orthodoxy

Luckily, Emil wisely decided that further comment on this would be pointless and instead, (as he often does) Emil shows us the faces of those swept away by the titanic changes in how war was no longer good (not that it really had ever been but, it was more regal and fought by brave knights who did fight for God/King or in some cases, a fair maiden or two).

We sincerely hope that you will find this volume to be enough of your passing interest to help keep Emil afloat…as you might see the truth in what Emil saw…witnessed during his time as a haplessly lanstrumed volunteer in the Great Northern Trenches in 1916.

WE BELIEVED

In 2008, few more than none had ever heard of Emil and even fewer could claim to have seen his doddles collected other than in his first novel of a unworthy pilgrim that the Holy Elephant Of Joy had dispatched out to barren wastelands of the Montana to enlighten the pagans and instruct them in the "Dance of Joy."
Fresh off a showing of his art in Las Vegas…he lucked into yet another career as "Job Arranger" amongst his unwashed, common folks and he went on from there to create the wildly successful "Used Job Shack" Guide as a daily, Employment Guide by the same name.

I never really got it…

You know that old Peace Corps Mantra about feeding a person vs teaching them to fish…you know what I'm talking about, right?

I saw it like most people brought up in a proper, capitalistic upbringing where teaching a person to fish put them in direct competition with your own business interests while giving them a fish guaranteed a repeat customer.

Flash forward…isn't that my beef with the Great Satan of this Workforce Industry Complex?

Now, like just now, I have come to realize that in a moral sense; them geeks at Peace Corps got this one correct. This like slipped way over my head all of these years until just as I write this… Like…

WOW!

POST NOTES FROM A NEWER GENERATION:

The evil demon, Time, dances, prances and even attempts a cartwheel while passing my partially opened door as I was again lost in the "What ifs?" of this project's central theme or more correctly; it's lack of one that would make an ounce of sense to those not entering their 16th months of semi-isolation and confinement here in the Year of the Plague...

Still a few forbidden thoughts linger in my gut and be damn my social credit score; I will (as a sworn Jesuit of the Truth) just come right out and educate all you unaware Campers on this.

POST NOTES FROM A NEWER GENERATION:

Many of you are too young to even know what "The Great Society" was and least of all, none of you have ever been told the truth(s) of (what history now refers to has the Great Social Reset of it's generation) how this series of social programs have done more than any foreign enemy ever did to destroy the very core fabric of American Society.

The Great Society was the most destructive force since slavery... It made the poor Black and Latino community economic slaves of a repressive centralized government that punished them for holding on to their history of family values...

The Great Society in all reality created nothing but millions of broken families, several lost generations of single parent households and ensure that the Black and Latino Communities could never break the chains of poverty...it locked them into the dank, dark prison of government control over nearly every aspect of their family's existence.
Stir this into the evil stew matrix of the corporate gangsters (with fat wallets filled with CCP Gold) who gleefully gutted/displaced of our once Mighty American Manufacturing Engine to China

POST NOTES FROM A NEWER GENERATION:

Inc. and sprinkle in the utter, the and near complete destruction of our public school system by the faded generation of aging 1960's hippies who still deeply resent the nation that their very fathers helped to built and they swore without (previous) attempts to tear down and do you really have to wonder why we are at this junction in our history...

Who is to blame...

"We all are to blame as we let them do this to us...without a whimper or complaint…"

The Great Society's crime lies in that fact that the government offered financial help not based upon of families need but upon a system that was based upon the number of children you had...More importantly, it's single greatest crime was that it drove they could not be there for the family to get assistance.

When you make a system that tells the poorest people if you live with your husband, you will receive no benefits: what did you expect would happen?
To offer their families almost FREE home/medical care/food assistance; poor men deserted their families in order that they could live better than they could actually offer them.

The Great Society looked at their efforts through the eyes of accountants and misguided government officials who may have come from broken homes and for whatever sick reason felt that all of American should suffer their pain and isolation of not having a father.
I do not blame the newly made single moms as I am always the first in line for anything free
(I took my stimulus checks with a smile...didn't you?) and if I have made a lifetime goal of doing what I can do to beat the system.

POST NOTES FROM A NEWER GENERATION:

But, in the end, they fell into the government's rejection of the Peace Corps concept of teaching people to fish and adapted the capitalist business mode of the mighty (corrupt) Workforce Industrial Complex (WIC) true belief in giving fish to people - thus making them totally dependent upon WIC and ensuring a continual line of repeat customers and with that, a never ending paycheck for all of the Non-Profit (who almost all have an extreme conflict-of-interest in that they do this work for their own profit as they actually make their own personal

They became mere sharecrops instead of citizens as their lives were now controlled, dictated and even punished whenever they tried to regain their freedoms by hundred of 1,000s of faceless civil servants and their hired guns – their contracted agencies.

We took the easy path of "out-of-sight-out-of-mind" and have spent the last 50 years kicking our problems down the road...

POST NOTES FROM A NEWER GENERATION:

PS... Dr. Ben Carlson is one of the smartest brains and is a strong believer in a hands-up not a hand-out as being a solution to America's most urgent needs!
empowering the local community instead of creating yet another welfare state - in which, an out of misguided liberalism system has decimated/destroyed the Black Family by forcibly removing the father from the family in order to get welfare assistance...
The whole system was corrupted by how the government, socialist accountants rigged each grant. The grants were result based and with non-operational observations caused grantees to freely cut corners, play around with intake /result numbers and triage the selection of clients by the likelihood to achieve a positive outcome instead of assisting those in most need of help/assistance. Those who were less likely of a quick grant reporting results never got in! The Socialist Accountants of the Great State allowed agencies to bill for a la carte services like resume writing (whether needed or appropriate or not) which ate up vast dollars of the grants with little or no dollars directly reaching those who the money was given for. Social agencies who originally were meant to help the needy in their communities were taken over by business (many former retail) managers who instituted a massive "bottom line" sea change in the the way they shifted from people based to a corporate mind think. This was further fueled by a cadre of faceless (heartless – former socialist accountants) government types with no actual skin in the game…who truly viewed the real world through the narrow eyes of their Excel Spreadsheets…who drove agencies to this live-or-die struggle to become cut throat by their demands of (many time) unrealistic result goal ratios to keep their grant paychecks coming in…

POST NOTES FROM A NEWER GENERATION:

With all this, many of these former social agencies quickly expanded into large corporations due to the FREE flow of Federal Dollars and their greed for more.

OK CAMPERS!

I get it! Like I truly do…but, do you?

True Capitalism at work…

"Emil…ain't that the true American Way and shouldn't we cheer them on??"

Problem was/is that the troubling fact as these agencies become Capitalist Success Stories; they did so at the expense of the their original intent of helping people in need.

In this brave new age of the dawn of the Workforce Industrial Complex; the people (who represented the total need of these corporate monsters to exist) became nothing more than props or inventory when their sales reps (who replaced the true social workers) marketed their companies services to the business community in the early 2010's.

Their clients who truly needed help but who had barriers to rapid re-employment were considered to be (almost) an unwanted drag on the agency's bottom line.

This is when they started to cherry pick the best/the most re-employable to fill out their registry.

There is an old adage in the

POST NOTES FROM A NEWER GENERATION:

Industry that was taught to me as a young pup…

"When you have numbers, brag loudly about them but, when you don't…brag about all the services that you offered…"

Sadly, I watched and fought this and the other betrayals wrought by the WIC (Workforce Industrial Complex) against those that we should have helped in favor of those who would have gone back to work without our assistance. How many lives did we sacrifice? How many lives/families could we have saved if we weren't so greedy with keeping as much of the grant money as we could for ourselves?

DATELINE: Phoenix, AZ.

The US Department of Labor has issued a job seeking apocalypse for the following counties of Arizona: Maricopa, Pinal and Pima.

Job seekers are advised to exercise extreme caution before joining any long line of job seekers and/or other large gatherings of job seekers (such as large job fairs) as there is no chance of employment there.

If you find yourself any the proximity of large gatherings of job seekers slowly retrace your steps away from the crowd and as a public service advisory, do not attempt to run away as the job seeking horde may sense that you are running towards a job opening and you could be overtake.

JOB SEEKING APOCALYPSE

Survival Guide

For weeks we warned you and pleaded with you to take employment action while you could and secure a good job and a living wage.

All through those passing weeks, we sounded the warning bell about the ocean of newly laid off seasonal workers that were about to wash up over your dreams of going to work in the New Year.

As our warnings went unheeded and you are now at ground zero of the 2015 Job Seeking Apocalypse, we are offering to any job seeking survivor the tools that they need to not only survive but to prosper in this dead zone of employment.

Read and re-read our previous daily job books for the past weeks as they contain valuable tips, suggestions and techniques that will allow you to beat back the descending horde of angry job seekers.

Go to our website and grab a safety net or two of advice and (who knows) you may weather through this Apocalypse none the worse for wear or you might

DATERLINE PHOENIX:

Day one of the Job Seeking Apocalypse was like a massive wave of 100,000 (plus) newly-minted, unemployed job seekers hit the city early on Monday Morning and by mid-morning there were massive lines in front of every employer that was cherry picking the best of the best for the few jobs that they were offering.

JOB SEEKING APOCALYPSE

Survival Guide

At several locations the crowd grew loud and unruly to the point that the Governor-Elect flirted with the call to deploy the National Guard to restore peace and order.

By lunchtime, it seemed that the city had weathered the brunt of the crisis with many of the half-hearted job seekers falling by the wayside. By early evening, the local media was awash with countless (first hand) tales of employment and job carnage. Reports of minimum wage offering flooded the airways.

Survival Guide

Up and down the wide boulevards of the city, you could easily trace the sheer magnitude of the pillaging of the main streets and employers by the army of unemployed job seekers. Shredded and torn killer resumes were scattered all about as some cruel joke that they could have saved the unprepared job seeker. This just in…

"Lines of several thousand angry job seekers are forming over at the east valley Kmart and according to the local police; it is a scary situation…"

RULES FOR THE JOB SEEKING APOCALYPSE:

Let's start with the reality of the job seeking market you are about to be entering.

There is a tidal wave of 100,000 seasonal workers about to wash over your job search and with that flood of low paying jobs sweeping in, you have to accept that all the normal rules are gonna need to change.

In a flood of 100,000 just laid off job seekers there are no rules as they are willing to go stand on any long line, go any place,

JOB SEEKING APOCALYPSE

Survival Guide

RULES FOR THE JOB SEEKING APOCALYPSE:
shake any hand and accept any wage just to keep a paycheck coming in.
So in this world of job seekers that are more hungry and desperate than you have been in your job search, you are gonna have a hard time to compete with this horde of newly unemployed.

WARNING! YOUR JOB FUTURE HANGS IN THE BALANCE

SURVIVAL TIP #1: Just because they were previously employed does not mean that they understand the process and they could be more lost than you in how to really get a job. Do not follow them as they are mindless to job searching other than standing in long, angry lines of job seekers cannibalizing their chances of a living wage.

They got their last job by being in the right place at the right time as they were giving away jobs.

With this commitment, you can bypass being eaten alive and washed away in a sea of cannibal applicants and be in a line of one survivor and YOU WIN!

SURVIVAL TIP #2:

By pass industries that have lain off workers. It does not matter how good of a retail sales clerk you are - if the big box stores are laying off 30,000 workers here in the valley, then it crazy to go looking for work there as these are already unsafe, hot zones for angry, cannibal job seekers idly waiting for the fresh meat of a single job opening here or there and will be swift to pounce upon and rip it apart.

Even if the big boxes still run ads, it doesn't matter! These are dead zones of employment…

RULES FOR THE JOB SEEKING APOCALYPSE:
the word "forklift" is a magical, gold phrase that offers passage up out of the angry crowd and into the security of employment. Those who will succeed will be able to showcase themselves and their skills correctly while the other applicants will fall by the wayside as they didn't know how to do this or didn't have the courage in their heart to do so. In Apocalyptic Employment Times, there is NO second place as the alternative to wining is endless homelessness!

PRIVILEGE

Privilege doesn't really tie into race but to station in life and the amount of (what Dick Gregory once spoke to) "Green Jesus" there in you pocket...

So...do you see kiddies; what color you are don't matter near as much as your credit score...????

This is why we need to all get together and compare notes instead of being instigated by the rich and their highly-paid politico minions to scream at each other while they continue to rip each of us off equally..

Being poor in America transcends color or lack of it...

But, what do I know? I am just a poor, white cracker who has been ordered to move along...

While we are NOT endorsing Emil nor this scatterbrain solution to the never-to-ending Virus Lockdown Plague as it is more seemingly based upon the 1980's movie series "Back to the Future" and not on any actual science this side of Darpa's Black Ops. Emil insists that he did track down one Dr. Brown and has secure the blueprints for a working time machine several years ago.
I do vaguely remember Emil writing something about this but, we are hard pressed to get Emil to realize that this was just a popular movie from the 1980's...to show you how serious we are...we wrote to Michael J. Fox's Agent to see if Michael would give Emil a call to personally explain that "It is all just a movie, dude!"
While his agent was very open to doing this; the whole thing fell apart when he mentioned Mr. Fox's standard fee.

LIMIT SEATING – BOOK TODAY!

I have come to realize that unless I take critical action to change our present paradigms with our current Virus Plague Lockdown imprisonment at the hands of corrupt politicos, greedy corporations, Wall Street Cronies, before my little buddies with the CCP take over the world and we all become like the Uyghurs – hidden away in some desert FEMA Camp in Utah working 16-hours-per-day making counterfeit NBA Nikes to restore our social credit score and ultimately be able to rejoin proper society as a totally re-educated denizen...

"Thank you CCP!"

I saw all this over on the YubberTuber and it has is troubling me greatly as I have been informed that my personal social credit score is at minus 10,000 and this leads me to believe that I would die in a FEMA Camp before I could ever work that score up. Just look how long it takes to get the banks to raise your financial credit score.

Over a year ago and like most of you that do not follow the "War Room" Pod Casts on a regular basis, I never saw any of this stuff actually becoming real life but, I did have a chance meeting with Dr. Emmett Brown (you know the guy who developed the first Flux Capacitor and built the first working time machine since the time of HG Wells in the later days of the 19th Century) in a city park. Seems he fell on hard times?

Long story that I covered in several of my previous books so, there is no need to revisit here unless I somehow end up several pages short on finishing this book.

LIMIT SEATING – BOOK TODAY!

After endless hour of negotiation's with Dr. Brown I was able to secure the actual tech drawing of both the flux capacitor and the time machine for what I must admit was rather a princely sum especially for a Hobo Tourer as myself but, thank goodness you don't need two kidneys to live a normal life.

OK! Campers!

I now understand and have been educated by one of our regular, fellow readers from over in Japan that the same tech drawing are on the "Back to the Future" Fan Webpage for like FREE!

I understand that it isn't your fault...you just don't know any better having grown up safety cocooned in the Safety Zone of your mom's basement without ever knowing the real world or having been given a dumbified education by teachers who couldn't make it in the real world either –I know as I was one for over a decade.

A year ago, we believed the lies as they looked us in the eye and without even a slight studder; they told us that they needed 15 days to save all of humanity from it's greatest treat since the Plague of Justinian.

LIMIT SEATING – BOOK TODAY!

We all nodded collectively “Yes!” when they came back and said that they needed to “a tiny bit longer” to flatten that damn curve and we ignored the logic of closing all the churches while liquor stores must remain open as our officials agreed with Marx (not Groucho) that religion and liquor were both opium of the masses but, realized that liquor was a tax revenue and God was tax free... besides, God only had bingo  and the liquor stores also sold Lotto Tickets – which funds many of the things that these politicos couldn’t get the community to vote or fund. # What brought on all that???

Sorry, campers! I am just disheartened that we are so cursed to relive the social disasters of the 1930's and I do fear that when (in 50-years or so) the next generation asks why we didn't do anything to stop the Dawn of the Great Social Reset; our answers will mirror the excuses that our relatives had as to why they didn't attempt to stop the Nazis. Look...Haters...don't post...I am not calling you a Nazi (although you often call me one when in fact, I am more a Libertarian Communist – not to brag) but, I am saying that the nation is traveling a 100-miles-per-hour down the road and there are but a few people that are desperately trying to get your attention to say "the bridge is out!"...

So...to all my hater brothers, sisters or non-committed...to all the WOKE TWIT Warriors and their fellow travelers; Eric Rohm never saw it coming...never thought that his loyal street fighters would every be seen as a liability to their politico masters and wasn't prepared when Hitler's most trusted aide (Rudolph Hess) would oversee their complete slaughter in what history romantically refers to as:

Just saying...might want to read up...do you have a "Prepper" Plan to deal with this?

Again, sorry about my rant but, I am frustrated that I see where we are going with all this and...WAIT!

I have heard all of this before!

20-years ago, I remember talking with this dude by the name of John Titor in an early

LIMIT SEATING – BOOK TODAY!

What brought on all that???

chat room (what they had before the TWIT and Facybook came along) where he claimed to be a time traveler from the not so distant future (2036) and had been sent back in a time machine (that looked not unlike Dr. Brown's but was a Corvette Stingray) to secure a computer part for (if I remember correctly) a 1970's IBM 5100.

Never got the importance of an IBM 5100 to the survival of the future...like, they have a time machine but don't have a Radio Shack? (Little did I know then that Radio Shack would indeed not exist in the future as they went bankrupt in the mid 2010's...they were once the Holy Grail of Electronic Stores.)

LIMIT SEATING – BOOK TODAY!

What brought on all that???

Really nice guy but way too chatty for your average time traveler and seems to have never heard of the “Prime Directive” as he was constantly talking about a future that was rather unappealing and far from inviting but, thank goodness that I still believed in those Damn Mayans with their 2012 being the final wrap of humanity and for that matter the whole world.

I can swear to this but, I never saw him as a Time Traveler as I didn’t believe in that (Sorry Dr. Brown!) but, after much thought and several binge watching of the TV Show “Sliders” on Blue-ray DVDs...

I came to see him to be much more like a slider (a traveler in the Quantum Mechanics proven science of multi-universals) which made much more sense to me as he did remind me of “Slider’s” Crying Man...

LIMIT SEATING – BOOK TODAY!

What brought on all that???

DIDN’T YOU?

He finally disappeared in late 2001 and even the Coast-to-Coast AM People wrote him off as some kind of kook or flake...and as time marched off into the new century and especially since his dire warnings about Y2K were routed into a complete letdown bust, most people paid his predictions as little attendance as they had “Sliders” Season 5 Release on DVD.

LIMIT SEATING – BOOK TODAY!

What brought on all that???

To be truthful, since I believe if he was kind of the real traveler but just not a Time Traveler; it made perfect sense that things might turned out different than he predicted as he had come from an alternate universe where it may have been a big thing.

Haven't thought of him for quite a while.

Well not until 2016 when there was another guy making the rounds and billing himself as the "REAL" John Titor.

He had a better story about being a Super Soldier (genetically engineered) and space traveler who had time machine, space ship right out of the "Jetsons."

His story had more depth and adventure

LIMIT SEATING – BOOK TODAY!

What brought on all that???

built into his narrative and it should – as he had a big time book deal and was making the Paranormal AM Talk Shows to promote his book...It was said to soon be another badly made Marvel Movie?

Those guys at Coast-to-coast are good! They got him to commit to his own "End of the World" prediction for 2017 when the Iranians would use the missing Malaysian Airline (that wasn't at the bottom of the Pacific but, according to John had been hijacked to Afghanistan) to nuke Israel and then, he added New York and Washington to the Top Ten List of Iranian Sites to Nuke.

Well...like that didn't happen...Did it?

LIMIT SEATING – BOOK TODAY!

What brought on all that???

If so, I must have been watching CNN and I just plain missed it.

After that Coast-to-Coast broadcast he just kind of vanished too but, you can still find an occasional copy of his book on the discount shelve at the Dollar Store.

The original John prediction thing seemed way too fantastic as he told about an America so bitterly divided that there had been a new civil war and in which he was in a militia (Shotgun) unit from near my dear old homestead in Central Florida.

Many say that this story was his downfall as literally no one could envision Americans being so angry that they would ever start a

LIMIT SEATING – BOOK TODAY!

What brought on all that???

civil war unless say the impossible was to happen and they banned beer, canceled football and/or NASCAR.

Then in 2020, the Governor of Michigan banned the sale of beer during the pandemic, 2020 saw Football first canceled and then played a limited (no contact sports) version and, NASCAR Drivers were virtually racing in a modified version of “Grand Theft Auto” - the one which required that you take the knee to be able to start your engine.

This is when I went back to reread John’s predictions while mixing into my analyze the fact that if he had come from an alternative universe then the dates would not necessarily match up – why didn't the Mayans come up with this excuse after their great big zero of 2012?

LIMIT SEATING – BOOK TODAY!

What brought on all that???

In 2021, I see an American so bitterly divided as our country (not unlike his) was beginning to fall apart not on race but, on State's Rights (which means that the states resent the Federal Government's seizure of power preventing the states from governing themselves) and with that the end game result of states leaving the union to become independent nation states like with Florida and Texas.

If he is right about the events but was off on the timeline because he came from an alternative universe then, we are doomed to fight what may become a drawn out conflict for three or more years and only to end in nuclear conflict with Russia not Iran and definitely not China as why would they nuke the country that they already own lock, sock and barrel ?

Will this happen?

If you would have asked in 2002 when it happened on John's World then, I would not be kind nor PC about my response...

bar were looking for some way to be distracted as his argument and story was getting long-in-tooth and then, I caught the fuller bit of his conversation with a sleepy-eyed bar tender – who looked all about haplessly seeking recue and reprieve for this impromptu lecture of world prophecies without a prediction of winning lotto numbers to hold her attention.

She mumbled something to the effect of "What Damn good is a prophet if he can't give me a heads-up on this week's Powerball Lottery or a stock market tip or two...!"

Then again to me...this was far better and it reconfirmed much of what I knew when I first joined this "End Times" Choir all of those many decades ago. Then, he looked straight at me, didn't blink nor did he stutter as he spoke as if directly to me:

"Nothing like this has ever been seen before around a Star... And this is the Ninth and Last Sign: You will hear of a dwelling-place in the heavens, above the earth ...
It will appear as a blue star..."

That time is not far off.

It will come when the Saquasohuh (Blue Star) Kachina dances in the plaza and removes his mask. He represents a blue star, far off and yet invisible, which will make its appearance soon.

I was later to learn from a young Navaho Gal over at my university (The Fred Flintstone School of Teaching @ good ole Bedrock U) a fuller version of what the guy at the bar was actually trying to tell me:

THE NINTH SIGN

SORRY...OFF TOPIC!!!

"This signifies a positive development. The Hopi were told they must carry on keeping 'the Hopi way', including their ceremonies, until the Creator returned.

This sign of a Blue Star indicates the return to the world and to the Hopi of the True White Brother and his two helpers.

Hopi tradition says about the Hopi's three helpers:"

The three will lay out a new life plan which leads to everlasting life and peace.

THE NINTH SIGN

SORRY...OFF TOPIC!!!

Therefore, the Hopi's 'watch and wait' ceremonies, which they have maintained for so long, may no longer be needed or may change into another form..."

Even later in an e-mail response that I had written to the President of the Hopi Nation; a Hopi Nation Elder answered back with direct honesty that all this was all true and if I was remotely interested...it seemed like I could book a seat as their version of the "Rapture" wasn't Festival Seating either:

THE NINTH SIGN

SORRY...OFF TOPIC!!!

"We are at the final stages now… so as our prophecy says. Then it must be up to the people with pure hearts that will not be afraid to help us to fulfil our destiny in peace for this world...

PLEASE ADVISE PEOPLE, IT IS TIME TO TAKE ACTION.

PUT A DOUBLE AMOUNT OF ENERGY WITH WHAT YOU ARE FOR. WE CAN CHANGE IT." --- If we carry on believing in a better world, and

THE NINTH SIGN

SORRY...OFF TOPIC!!!

INCREASE OUR EFFORTS, we can change the direction the world is going..."

I never did ask him for a price or if he was making a joke of the story that I included in my original e-mail about having already purchased first class seats to the Christian version of the "Rapture" and thus I can't tell you if it was a good deal or just a bad, mocking joke on me.

Still even later, as a founding listener to the American AM Radio/Short Wave Talk Show

"Coast-to-Coast" will immediately get all this as it ties into their frequent broadcasts about a coming death planet/mini-black sun, Nibiru (sometimes just called Planet 9 is they can't figure out how to spell Nibiru) that would not be seen due to the wave length of the light rays that it admits...or that it has this weird-ass orbit that takes like 35,000 years to circle the sun.

Did the experts on "Coast-to-Coast happen to be traveling through Northern Arizona (maybe stopping at a Hopi Trading Post or Problem was that there never was any scientific facts to back any of this up and in the end, they always seemed to throw those poor, Hopi Elders under the bus by blaming them as the Hopi Guy and me blame those "Damn" Mayans.

Go figure that I would recently hear on NPR (National Public Radio...) I think...it was on shortwave so maybe not; I heard them saying something about NASA Astronomers were scheduled to announce new findings about a star unlike any seen before at a media teleconference back in the middle of August.

Then on Wednesday (Aug. 15th) I read online on Yahoo that:
